

In Pursuit of Personal Excellence

Unleash your imagination, spark your creativity and inspire your personal best!

In a unique fundraising event on March 27th, join international speaker and trainer Brian Willis as he combines two of his most powerful presentations – Dare to Soar and Your Life IS Your Legacy – into a dynamic and insightful half-day presentation that will help unlock the door to your future and inspire you to seek excellence in your life.

Brian will explore the issues around victim thinking that has become pervasive in today's world. Through the use of stories, examples and the analogy of The Ostrich and The Eagle, Brian will explore the causes of this type of limiting thinking, which only serve to prevent us from daring to soar, as well as provide valuable insight into how to overcome the roadblocks on our path.

You will learn the tools needed to write the new story of your life...free of limiting beliefs and behaviours that may have kept you back from achieving your dreams.

Who should attend:

- Individuals interested in getting more out of life and living fearlessly in the moment
- Corporate teams looking to jump-start their effectiveness
- Parents, teachers, coaches, counsellors and therapists
- Students – high school and post-secondary
- Emergency service personnel, social workers and social service providers
